

Marine Magazine Features G.I.'s From Torrance

Two Torrance Marines Lance Corporal Paul S. Yasutake and Private First Class James L. Groth are among members of the Marine Corps Reserve's 15th Rifle Company featured in the July issue of Leatherneck Magazine, publication of the Marines' with world-wide circulation.

Yasutake resides at 22323 S. Figueroa and Groth lives at 22325 S. Vermont, Torrance.

The article features the history of the unit from its inception prior to the Korean War, the refoining with release of personnel from active duty and the rigid training schedule which men and officers now undergo to keep them trained and ready for any national emergency.

According to Major Robert E. Hoskins, inspector-instructor for the company, the article specifically points out that while the unit is headquartered at the Seal Beach Naval Ammunition and Net Repair Depot, it has many advantages other units do not in that it is virtually surrounded by Naval and Marine installations and can count upon these activities to furnish support for unusual training, whether it be helicopter assault tactics or forming their own invasion fleet for the storming of Southern California beaches.

The article was written by Jack Lewis, former Marine officer who now is a Hollywood film and television writer.

U.S. Army Man Completes Class

Army Private Richard D. Gonzales recently completed the power equipment maintenance course at the Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Georgia.

During the ten-week course Gonzales was trained to install and maintain motor-driven power equipment used by the Signal Corps to generate electricity.

The 24-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Gonzales, 177 E. 214th St., Torrance, entered the Army in January 1960 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, California. He attended Morton High School, Cicero, Ill.

College Lists Top Students

Mary Caroline Sippel, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sippel, 2914 Onrado, is one of 24 students named on the Dean's Honor List for the spring semester at Chapman College, Orange, where she is a sophomore business administration major.

The list is made up of the top five per cent of each class, based on the semester's grade point averages.

Bay Hospital Dedication Set

Dedication ceremonies for the South Bay Hospital, built and owned by area citizens, have been set for Sunday, July 31, 2 p.m., Auten F. Bush, board president, announced today.

This approval signifies that both hospitals have met the rigid standards set by the American Medical Association, American Hospital Association, American College of Physicians, and American College of Surgeons comprising the Joint Commission on Accreditation.

The $3.5 million, 4-story structure, at North Prospect Ave., and Diamond St., Redondo Beach, is the result of a 27-month construction program by the South Bay District and neighboring communities.

Torrance and all South Bay residents are invited to tour and inspect complete facilities, Bush declared.

Conducting tours of the new hospital will be 100 South Bay Hospital Auxiliary members directed by Mrs. Walter DeVore.

Other chairmen include Mrs. Robert Collins, Jack Horn, S. L. Stentz, E. J. Armend, Jerome Sittels, Frank Diederichs, and Richard Friend.

Dedication ceremonies will be highlighted by an address, "A Monument to Compassion," by Rev. Paul C. Cox, pastor of St. Andrews United Presbyterian Church, Redondo.

Local Hospitals Win Approval

The Dallas Naval Air Station, Grand Prairie, Texas, The meet, sometimes called the "World Series" of model airplane flying, will run through Sunday, July 31.

Contestants in the meet, the fourth National Championships to be held in Dallas, range from 6 to 60 years old, and come from 50 states. Entrants also come from Canada, Peru and several other Latin American countries.

Competition in the National is divided into three age groups; Junior Class, open to those less than 16 years old; Senior Class, open to contestants between 16 and 21; and Open Class, for contestants over 21.

Contestants enter their models in events such as free-flight gas to radio-control, control-line speed, jet and team racing contests. In the Navy carrier events, the modelers will fly their gas engine planes off and land aboard the deck of the miniature aircraft carrier, the USS Small Fry. Seaplanes will take off from the specially constructed lake at the Dallas Naval Air Station.

Contestants winning first, second and third place in each event will be awarded a trophy. The Grand National Champion will receive a perpetual challenge trophy. The contest runs from July 25 through July 31.

The meet is conducted by the Academy of Model Aeronautics of Washington, D.C., model aircraft governing body. The U.S. Navy is acting as host to the meet for the thirteenth consecutive year. The last National Meet held at the Dallas Naval Air Station, was in 1956.
